

An Interesting Appendix to the STONE Genealogy

The Delano Lineage

Thomas Stone	1827-1899	m.	Adelaide Spencer
William Spencer	-1892	m.	Betsy Cherry	(1808-)
			Spencer came from Derbyshire, England and was buried in Chatham, Ontario
Samuel Cherry II	1780-1825	m.	Abigail Delano	(-1871)
			They moved from N.Y. state to Belleville, Ontario and were buried there in St. Thomas church yard
Philip Delano	1761-	m.	Esther Boardman of New Haven, Oswega County, N.Y.	where Philip died
Jonathan Delano III	1715-1811	m.	Anna Ladd.	Buried in Hartford
Jonathan Delano II	1680-1752	m.	Amy Hatch of Falmouth, Mass.
Jonathan Delano	1647-1720	m.	Mercy Warren, granddaughter of Richard Warren, one of the 12 signers of the Mayflower Compact
Philippe de la Noye	1602-1681		Founder of the Delano family
		m.	1634 Hester Dewsbury of Duxbury, Mass.
		m.	1659 Mary Pontus, widow of Jas. Glass. He left Leiden, Holland in 1621 to join the "Fortune", the first ship to follow the "Mayflower" from London to Plymouth with 35 colonists
Jean de Lannoy	1570-1604	m.	Marie de Mahieu of Brabant who on Jean's death, married Jean Pesyn	(-1650)
			Portraits of Jean Pesyn, Marie and daughter are in a Walloon church alms house in Leiden
Gysbert de Lannoy	1545-		born at Toureving, Flanders, became a Protestant and due to persecution moved to Leiden

Jean de Lannoy	1511-1570
Phillip de Lannoy	1500-1543	m.	Marguerite of Burgundy
Beaudoin de Lannoy			Served at the siege of Beauvais in 1472
Beaudoin de Lannoy	1438-1501		Was a Chevalier de Toison d'Or (Golden Fleece)
Cuillebert de Lannoy
Hugues de Lannoy	1311-1349	m.	1329 Marguerite de Mingoval. They were burried at Lys
Joan de Franchimont
		m.	Mahienne, the heiress of Lannoy and Lys.

Hugues de Lannoy was mentioned in the Chante de L'Abbey de
St. Aubert, 1186.

Gilbert de Lannoy was mentioned in "Chante des Chanoines" at Lille in 1171.

Hugues de Lannoy was first recorded in 1096 as a Flemish countship.

prepared by John R. Bradfield

May 1979